FREMONT-WINEMA NATIONAL FORESTS CLOSE

FOREST ROADS TO ENSURE PUBLIC AND FIREFIGHTER SAFETY

Crater Lake, Ore – Due to suppression activities taking place on the Phoenix Wildland Fire, the Fremont-Winema National Forests have closed the following Forest Service (FS) roads:

- FS Road 7015 from its junction with Oregon State Highway 138 to its intersection with FS Road 70.
- FS Road 2308 from its junction with FS Road 570 to its intersection with FS Road 7015.
- FS Road 570 from its junction with FS Road 70 to its intersection with FS Road 2308.

"The Forest was seeing an increase in traffic on those roads with the start of bow season," said Dave Sabo, Chemult District Ranger. "Public and firefighter safety is our number priority and made it necessary for us to close those roads."

Fire officials have now estimated that the Phoenix Wildland Fire has burned 310 acres in Crater Lake National Park and about 20 acres on the Fremont-Winema National Forests for a total of 330 acres. The fire was ignited by lightning on the afternoon of August 17 and discovered on August 18. It is currently burning inside the National Park's boundary on the east flank of Timber Crater and in an area on the Forest between FS Roads 7015 and 2308.

According to Phoenix Wildland Fire Incident Commander Ken Gregor, the cold front that moved into the area on Saturday brought cooler temperatures and .05 inches of precipitation, which slowed the progression of the fire. "This weather is allowing fire crews more time to make progress on contingency lines in anticipation of the warmer temperatures forecasted later this week," added Gregor.

The Phoenix Wildland Fire is being managed to allow fire to serve its natural role in the ecosystem and reduce hazardous fuel accumulation in the National Park. A fire suppression strategy is being implemented on the National Forest lands with public and firefighter safety as the number one priority.

For more information about the Phoenix Wildland Fire, please contact the National Park Service at (541) 594-3062. For more information, please visit: <http://www.nps.gov/fire/>

Artist of the Month at the Two Rivers Gallery

I started woodturning about ten years ago while we were living in Fredericksburg, Texas. I joined the Hill Country Turners in Kerrville, TX, bought a Jet Mini lathe and started turning with the help of some very good turners in the club and some good books on woodturning and design. I joined the American Association of Woodturners (AAW) which is a great organization. I attended three annual seminars and demonstrations put on by the Southwestern Association of Turners (SWAT) in Texas and I've attended two annual AAW conventions. I've taken five day workshops with Richard Raffan, a well known Australian woodturner and writer and with Stewart Batty, a young British turner. Since moving back to Oregon I've joined the Southern Oregon Turners in Grants Pass and the Northwest Woodturners in Portland.

I practiced Pediatrics in Portland for 26 years and didn't seem to find much time for hobbies but I did dabble in other art forms. I spent six years in the Public Health Service with the Division of Indian Health in Southeastern Alaska and the Crow and Navajo Reservations where I developed an interest in Native American Art and I frequently use some of their designs and decorations in my work.

I primarily turn bowls and platters but some hollow forms. I use mostly Madrone Burl, Maple Burl and Myrtle Burl but also a number of other woods. My pieces are all one of a kind and I rarely repeat a design. You learn to take what the wood gives you. That's what makes it so interesting!

Calendar Update: We are winding down our 2011 Community Calendar fund raiser. There is no ad space available but if you would still like to put listings of birthdays, anniversaries, memorials or meeting notices on the calendar or order a calendar, you have through Wednesday to do so.

The cost is 50¢ a listing and Calendars are $4.50 each. Stop by the library and fill out the paperwork. Payment will have to be made at that time. The library closes at 6:00 PM. I want to thank all who helped and all that bought listings and ads this year. This is a major fund raiser for the Friends of the Chiloquin Library and helps sponsor many children's programs among other things.

What's Happening "in town"

Klamath County Museum News (Courtesy of Todd Kepple)

Diary pages available online

The Klamath County Museum has posted on the Internet copies of pages from the 1873 diary of Leonard Case Jr., who traveled from Cleveland, Ohio, to witness the execution of Captain Jack and three other Modoc Indians following the Modoc Indian War.

Last June the museum purchased a set of three diaries through an auction, including one kept by Case and two by his assistant, Henry Abbey. The acquisition cost $20,682.50, with the cost being split between the county museum and the Klamath County Museum Foundation. No tax funds were used to pay for the acquisition.

Case's diary includes 21 pages of notes he recorded on October 2, 1873, the day before the execution. Case watched as Captain Jack and other condemned men were interviewed by Gen. Frank Wheaton.

Edison Chiloquin Portrait Donated

The Klamath County Museum has received the donation of a striking portrait of Edison Chiloquin, a well-known Klamath Indian who was revered in both Native American and white communities.

The oil painting was created more than 30 years ago by Hazel Allen Barry (formerly Hazel Wilcher), a former Klamath Falls resident who now lives and paints in Medford.

Chiloquin, who died in 2003 at the age of 79, was best known for his refusal to accept a cash payment from the federal government after the Klamath Tribe's reservation was abolished.

Rather than accept money, Chiloquin demanded that he receive a portion of former reservation lands. After years of negotiations and discussions, a 580-acre parcel of land near the town of Chiloquin was set aside. Edison Chiloquin used the land to hold annual encampments for tribal members.

The portrait of Chiloquin will be on display through September in the museum's lobby, where there's no admission fee. Please feel free to stop by and see this beautiful painting.

Toby Riddle basket on display

Also on display in the museum lobby through September is a basket made in 1916 by Toby Riddle, the Modoc Indian woman better known to many as Winema.

The basket owned by Winema's granddaughter, Christine Allen of Klamath Falls, played a key role in solving a puzzle about another basket that turned up in New Mexico. That basket was the subject of research project by the "History Detectives" television program on PBS.

Researchers considered many clues about the New Mexico basket, but concluded it was genuine only after comparing it with the local basket.

To view the program that aired Aug. 23, visit the History Detectives web page at PBS.

Day of culture being planned

The Klamath County Cultural Coalition is planning to participate in a statewide cultural celebration.

A "Day of Culture" is being planned for Monday, October 4, at the Ross Ragland Theater. Paulanne Petersen, Oregon's poet laureate, will be in attendance. Other offerings will include a performance by the Joan Daley Trio, a presentation by the Klamath County Museum, and an exhibit featuring local artists.

Upcoming museum events

Ernie's Hotel tour – Visit one of the town's most colorful buildings at Fifth and Elm streets. Now vacant, the building has served as a rooming house, a hotel and a brothel. Tours will be offered from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, September 17, and from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, September 19. Admission by donation will benefit the Klamath County Museum.

Malin tour – The Klamath County Museum and the Malin Historical Society will offer a bus tour through the Malin area on Saturday, September 18. Cost is $20, and includes lunch at the Malin Country Diner. Stop by the museum to reserve a seat.

Other community events

Free train rides – The Klamath & Western Railroad near Chiloquin will offer free rides on their miniature trains for two more weekends this year, with runs open to the public from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. September 5th and 6th. Drive north on Highway 97 to the South Chiloquin Highway and watch for signs. Donations are accepted.

Many opportunities here.

Two Rivers Gallery: The gallery, which is a community project and has no paid employees, is seeking people to “gallery sit”. This involves talking to people who stop by to browse and shop. You do not need to be an artist, but if you are, gallery hours reduce the amount of your commission. Any time at all that you can donate to us will be very much appreciated. Contact the Gallery @ 783-3326.

Sage Community School – Sage Community School is looking for community volunteers interested in assisting Sage Community School. If you are interested in offering your services as a volunteer in any way, please contact Wendy Kincaid at 783-7743.

Start Making A Reader Today (SMART) – a statewide program working with children K-3 during school hours. Each volunteer works one-on-one with a child for ½ hour, helping them read (or reading to the youngest). We always need volunteers, whether scheduled every week or merely as a substitute reader when the regular reader is unable to attend. Call the above numbers for an application or fill out an on-line application at www.getsmartoregon.org. It will be the most rewarding hour you ever volunteer! Contact the SMART office at 273-2424 or the Chiloquin Elementary School at 783-2338.

President - Kathie Longbrake at 783-3013 or Secretary - Liz Matuk at 783-3921.

Chiloquin Branch Library - The library has many ways to get involved and many fun ways to contribute to your local community. Some opportunities:

1. Storytime: If you would like to read two or three stories to a small group or preschoolers, and lead them in a simple craft or activity, the library staff can use your help. Story time is at 1:30 PM on Thursday afternoons during the school year.
2. Summer Reading Program: There are many opportunities during the summer to help out with this very worthwhile program.
3. Honor collections: these are racks of paperback books, magazines and audiovisual materials that patrons may check out without a library card. By offering these collections, more people in the community can be reached and a greater diversity of materials can be made available without incurring the costs of cataloging and processing items for the general collections. The staff would like to have some help in keeping these racks orderly, attractive and relevant. Check with the librarian for information on how to “adopt a rack”.

4. Help with sorting donations.

5. Go through Books for Sale section and tidy it once a month or so.

Stop in at the library and see what they need or give them a call at 783-3315.

Chiloquin Visions in Progress (CVIP)

CVIP operates the Chiloquin Community Center and the Chiloquin Learns After School program, and is the contact point for the Chiloquin Area Community Resource Committees and their projects. We have a volunteer list in the office where you can sign up to be available for many different “jobs” and projects. Call 783-7780 between 10 AM and 2 PM weekdays for further information.
